A CLEAN MAN.

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues and fibers in every organ of the body. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and clean, healthy flesh. It doesn t make the flabby fat of corpulency, but the firm flesh of health. It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol to inebriate or create craving for injurious stimulants.

Mr. John L. Coughenour, of Glen Savage, Somerset Co., Pa., writes: "My appetite was unusually poor, and I was as weak and nervous as though I had been starved for months. My heart kept throbbing continually and I was short of breath. Finally I wrote to you for advice and you informed me that I had indigestion and a torpid liver. I did not think your diagnosis was right, but I ordered six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' from you and began its use. After using three bottles I began to improve slowly and soon went to work, and I have been working ever since."

Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes," Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

TROUBLE IN PORTO RICO.

Six meetings of strikers were held simultaneously Monday in the Ponce, Porto Rico, district. The insular police; report that at one meeting an American flag was torn and trampled upon. They attempted to make arrests, and a riot followed. The crowd attacked the police, clubs and revolvers were used, and a number of persons were wounded, including three of the police. A lieutenant of police received a scalp wound from a machete. After a number of arrests had been made order was restored, though with great difficulty.

About 4,000 strikers attended another meeting on the plaza at Ponce. Orators of the American Federation of Labor, and President Sanchez, of the local organization, addressed the men. A disturbance ensued, and the police used their clubs, which was followed by revolver shots from the crowd. The situation became decidedly alarming, but the firing brought re-enforcement of police, and order was partly restored. An attempt to rescue the arrested strikers, while they were on their way to jail, provoked another disturbance, during which a number of persons were injured, though not seriously. The federation orators are bitter in their denunciations of the political parties of Porto Rico, and accuse the police of willfully inciting the strikers to riot. Quiet has been restored.

President Sanchez, and Storer, the American federation leader, will furnish bail for strikers who are unable to secure bondsmen. The strikers have announced their intention of holding another mass-meeting at Ponce, and the police have been ordered not to permit any further disturbances.

In an interview, President Sanchez said the American flag was not insulted or torn when the police dispersed the Ponce gathering. He claims that a fight between rowdies caused the riot, but laborers from other cities assert that the police are engaged in a conspiracy against the strikers. They will hold several minor meetings to protest against the action of the police.

HOCH, THE BIGAMIST.

The trial of Johann Hoch, for the alleged murder of one of his many wives. Mrs. Marie Walcker Hoch began today before Judge Karsten in the Criminal Court in Chicago. The last woman to claim marriage to Hoch is Mrs. Caroline Streiker, of Philadelphia, who states that she married Hoch October 20, 1904. She says Hoch lived with her ten days and that after he departed she discovered that $200 had disappeared. She says that she was sick almost constantly while living with Hoch, and Assistant State's Attorney Olsen believe she was drugged. Mrs. Streiker has identified as Hoch a photograph sent to the Philadelphia authorities by the Chicago police.

A claim to be the "original" Mrs. Johann Hoch was made yesterday by Mrs. Katherine von Palo, of Wisconsin. She identified Hoch at the county jail as the man who married her in Germany in 1875 and twice deserted her. The woman says Hoch's real name is Karl von Palo. Before a word was said when the woman confronted him at the jail yesterday Hoch threw up his hands, crying: Gott in himmel. She is a fraud." "Come here, Karl," said Mrs. von Palo in German. "You are my husband; come here." Hoch shrugged his shoulders, turned about and walked away. "That is the man who married me in Germany 30 years ago," said the woman. "We were young and happy then. Karl was 22 and I was 19. I loved him, and I believe I could love him again. Ach, my poor Karl."

The officials in the State's Attorney's office questioned the woman carefully later at much length. They are inclined to believe her mistaken in her belief that she is the "original" Mrs. Hoch.

Attacks Apostles' Creed.

Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur, of New York, has caused a sensation by a bitter attack on the Apostles' Creed. In an address to a convention of Baptist young people in Philadelphia, Dr. MacArthur said: "The two phrases, 'He descended into hell' and 'I believe in the communion of saints,' which are recognized as part of the so-called Apostles Creed, were smuggled into the creed. Who is responsible for their introduction we are unable to tell, but their introduction into the creed is, in my opinion, one of the most gigantic frauds perpetrated in the history of religion. Members of one faith assert that the creed was formed by the apostles, each of them contributing a portion of the declaration of the principles of faith." Dr. MacArthur continued: "The Apostles' Creed, it is called, though I know not why. It was formed and the two objectionable phrases to which I refer were smuggled into it a hundred years after the last of the apostles had died. "I maintain," he said, "that it is most unchristian to consign anyone to perdition as is done in the first phrase, and that any minister who will repeat the creed, using these phrases, is no christian."

"Especially the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER of Virginia."
For Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, Renal Calculi, Gout, Rheumatism and All Diseases Dependent Upon a Uric Acid Diathesis.

Samuel O. L. Potter, A. M., M. D., M. R. C. P., London, Professor of the Principles and Practice of Medicine and Clinical Medicine in the College of Physicians and Surgeons of San Francisco, Cal., in his "Hand-Book of Materia Medica, Pharmacy and Therapeutics," in the citation of remedies under the head of "Chronic Bright's Disease," says: "Mineral waters, especially the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER of Virginia, has many advocates." Also, under "Albuminuria," he says: "BUFFALO LITHIA WATER is highly recommended."

George Halsted Boyland, A. M., M. D., of Paris, Doctor of Medicine, of the Faculty of Paris, in the New York Medical Journal, August 22, 1896, says: "There is no remedy as absolutely specific in all forms of Albuminuria and Bright's Disease, whether acute or chronic, as BUFFALO LITHIA WATER, Spring No. 2, accompanied by a milk diet. In all cases of pregnancy, where albumin is found in the urine, as late as the last week before confinement, if this water and a milk diet are prescribed, the albumin disappears rapidly from the urine and the patient has a positive guarantee against puerperal convulsions."

T. Griswold Comstock, A.M., M.D., of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have often prescribed BUFFALO LITHIA WATER in Gouty and Rheumatic conditions and in Renal Calculi, accompanied by Renal Colic, and always with the most satisfactory results. In Renal Calculi, where there is an excess of Uric Acid, it is especially efficacious."

Medical testimony which defies all imputation or question mailed to any address.

BUFFALO LITHIA WATER is for sale by druggists and grocers generally.

CODFISH.—New Boneless and Shredded Codfish just received by J. C. MILBURN.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 19, 1905.

TODAY is the 44th anniversary of the conflict in the streets of Baltimore between citizens of that city and a Massachusetts regiment while the latter was on its way to Washington in response to President Lincoln's call for 75,000 men with which to coerce the people of the South into accepting him as President and the republican administration which had just started on its career. Blood in both sections of the country was at fever heat, and many in the monumental city, whose sympathies were with their southern brethren, made an attempt to stop the passage of federal soldiers through Baltimore. The result could have been foreseen, as a mob armed with paving stones is no match for a regiment with guns and cartridges. The assault was made and disastrous effects upon the assailants followed, as the soldiers fired into the crowd, killing and wounding numbers, including some bystanders. The soldiers subsequently made their way to the depot and proceeded to Washington. Bloodshed in the streets of Baltimore exasperated many southern sympathizers, numbers of whom made their way south and enlisted in the southern army. The military soon took possession of Maryland and prevented the State from leaving the union. The Baltimore incident was the cause of much exasperation, and the bitter blood engendered was of long standing. But time has mollified in a measure the harsh feelings of the past, as most all the original actors have passed into another existence.

THE RECENT troubles in Limoges, France, in which anarchists have figured are causing considerable anxiety in that country, as further and more serious outbreaks are feared. It has been over a third of a century since France was distracted by the commune which held a brief sway after the Franco-Prussian war, and of late there has been considerable restiveness in President Loubet's realm. During the recent disorders in Russia there was a sympathetic movement in Paris, which, however, was nipped in the bud. It now looks as if the storm centre was about to shift from Russia into France. The year 1905 may witness dual revolutions, and should the movements prove in any way successful such disturbances may grow as a prairie fire.

JAPANESE soldiers are small, and their success has led to proposals in New York to reduce the minimum dimensions exacted of candidates for appointment on the police. But the really serious question is that of keeping policemen small after appointment. A political revolution in one of the small towns in New York State caused the discharge of the whole police force of four or six men, whose girth was a wonder to behold. After a few months of private life they were no larger than the average citizen. The Philadelphia Record in explanation says: "Free beer was no longer a perquisite,"

IN A recent address at the University of California, H. Rider Haggard, the English novelist, who has come to America to study various agricultural colonies, told of the utter wretchedness of life in the London slums, and made this prediction:

"Unless the evils brought about by this congestion of the masses in cities are stopped, western civilization is in danger of being swept away by a conquering eastern people, who have the virtues of their country and are not afflicted with western evils."

Mr. Haggard's warning should be heeded.

REV. ROBERT CAMERON, editor of Watchword and Truth, comes to the defense of Mr. Rockefeller by saying that the securing of special rates was usually the custom until forbidden by law, and asks if the ministers are consistent. He adds that, as a rule, they are not the men to object to special rates from railroads, colleges, libraries, book stores or other sources of modern comfort. He wants to know why they should have half rates any more than the common herd of men. He insists that Mr. Rockefeller should not be condemned without being heard in his own defense.

DELEGATES to the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic started a lively discussion in post headquarters at Wilmington, Del., yesterday, over the law passed by Congress returning the Confederate battle flags. One veteran finally remarked that President Roosevelt had already signed the law and then the matter was dropped, but it seems hard for a G. A. R. meeting to be held without the bloody flag being waved.

THE abnormally cold weather of the past few days has naturally caused considerable apprehension among many in this section of the world. The frost hereabouts this morning was as heavy as some seen in the latter part of November, and the eastern Virginia truck belt has suffered considerably. The strawberry crop in many places has suffered, as well as beans, peas, &c.

MANY reading the dispatches from the far East are inclined to the belief that the two hostile fleets are dodging each other.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

United States Minister, John Barrett, now at Panama, it is believed will shortly be recalled. Whether or not he will be appointed to some new post in the diplomatic service or be dropped out entirely is not definitely known. It is understood, however, that the administration is very much dissatisfied with his management of affairs on the isthmus. One reason for this is disclosed in the installment of advance sheets of the foreign relations of the United States for 1904 which was given to the press today.

The Postoffice Department today issued a fraud order against Edward Sanders & Company of New York. It is charged that the firm has been engaged in exploiting a lottery scheme by selling certain alleged bonds which are in reality chances in a prize distribution.

The statement from Berlin to the effect that U. S. Ambassador Tower has approached the German Foreign Office with a view to ascertaining its sentiment with regard to the negotiation of a reciprocity treaty between the United States and the German Empire was a surprise to the State Department. Officials there declare that if the ambassador has put out any feeling on this subject he has done so on his own responsibility and without any instruction from Washington.

Mariano Toribio, justice of the peace at Mariveles, Luzon, Philippine Islands, is under arrest on a charge of sedition. According to the advices received here, he is charged with writing and circulating libels against the government, with intent to incite conspiracies and rebellion, and to stir up the people. The letter, which caused the arrest of Toribio, was written to Governor Ramon Santos, of the province of Albay, who turned it over to the detectives. In this letter, Toribio declares that all efforts to secure greater freedom have hitherto resulted in only further oppression.

The Chinese government, according to an official report to the State Department, has granted its first patent. It is for an electric lamp, the inventor of which is an inhabitant of Nankin, who calls the lamp, "the bright moon light," and asserts that it is far superior to foreign glow lights that hitherto have been sold at Shanghai and other Chinese cities.

Before the Senate committee on interstate commerce this morning Victor Morawetz, chairman of the executive committee of the board of directors of the A., T. & S. F. Railroad, denied emphatically that his company had ever given a rebate to the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company as has been charged. He attributed the prosecution to spite.

"Individually they are representative American ladies; collectively they are a mob." This epigrammatic description of the Daughters of the American Revolution pronounced two years ago when the organization was in the throes of electing Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, president general for a second term is still true, only that in the past two years the daughters seem to have curbed the mob-like spirit to a fair semblance of parliamentary bustle. Today a regular Bunker Hill of ballots is being waged. With Mrs. McLean running for her party and Mrs. George M. Sternberg and Mrs. Charles Warren Lippitt, of Rhode Island, jointly representing the Fairbank's brigade, the daughters are selecting Mrs. Fairbanks's successor. There are some dozen vice-presidents-general being elected, but they are utterly unimportant in the shade of the great conflict over the head of the ticket. Mrs. Fairbanks makes no secret of the enmity which exists between herself and Mrs. McLean. Mrs. McLean's lieutenants can find few things too bitter to say of the other side. Mrs. Fairbanks was obliged to interrupt the reading of yesterday's minutes at this morning's session to have the floor cleared of spurious delegates. There was several minutes' confusion, during which several intruders were openly denounced, but finally the hall was cleared of all save delegates. Nominations for vice-presidents-general occupied an hour. The nominations closed with eighteen candidates in the field. There are to be ten vice-presidents-general elected in addition to one in charge of the organization of chapters. Mrs. Main, of Washington, D. C., was nominated for the latter office. The election of Mrs. Fairbanks as "honorary president general" became an ovation. A rising vote was taken. Minor general officers were nominated and unanimously elected as follows: Mrs. Tunis' Hamlin, of Washington, D. C., chaplain general; Mrs. H. E. S. Davis, Washington, D. C., treasurer general; Mrs. Jonathan Dolliver, Iowa, historian general; Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, Washington, D. C., liberian general; Editor American Monthly Magazines, Mrs. E. Avery business manager. Nominations were made as follows: Rec secretary general, Miss Mary Desha, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. M. B. Prentis, Washington, D. C.; corresponding secretary general, Miss Virginia Miller, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. John Russel Young, Washington, D. C.; registrar general, Mrs. Geo. D. Martin, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Stewart Jamison, Alexandria, Va.

D. A. R.

Mrs. Donald McLean, of New York; Mrs. Charles Warren Lippitt, of Rhode Island, and Mrs. George M. Sternberg, of Washington, were nominated last night for the office of president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, now in session in Washington.

Mrs. Fairbanks lost control of her temper yesterday, when a question involving Mrs. McLean's candidacy was brought before the house, and with some asperity, she ruled that campaign speeches could not be made during business hours.

Before the astonished delegate, Mrs. Parks, of Georgia, could frame a reply, Mrs. McLean moved majestically down the aisle and declared that, having heard no campaign speeches, she moved that the congress proceed to its regular schedule.

There was prolonged and reiterated applause, and during the five minutes required to get the house in order Mrs. Fairbanks showed visible signs of nervousness and fatigue.

Another acrimonious discussion arose over the holding of business sessions on Good Friday, and again Mrs. McLean scored by a few well-chosen remarks on the sanctity of the day and the motion for a session on Good Friday was lost.

The Trial of Hoch.

Chicago, April 19.—John Hoch, confessed bigamist and alleged wife murderer, was taken before Judge Kersten, today, to stand trial on the charge of having killed one of his wives, Mrs. Marie Welcker Hoch. Assistant State's Attorney Olsen appeared for the prosecution, and Attorney Plotke for Hoch. The lawyers immediately proceeded to the selection of a jury. Six women who claim Hoch as their husband, were in court, when he was brought in from the county jail. Scores of people flocked to the court room. An extra force of bailiffs will be used to handle the crowds of men and women.

News of the Day.

Senator Taliaferro, of Florida, was re-elected yesterday.

Grand Ruling No. 8, Fraternal Mystic Circle, which comprises Virginia and West Virginia, met in Lynchburg yesterday. Rev. Dr. W. L. Pickard made the address of welcome, to which Supreme Mystic Ruler F. H. Duckwitz, of Buffalo, N. Y., responded.

Russian detectives have discovered that Mlle. Lontieff, daughter of General Lontieff, governor of Yokutsk, Siberia, who became a terrorist, converted two nieces of Governor General Trepoff to the doctrine of assassination, and that one of them attempted to kill her uncle.

President Roosevelt has killed a bear and a bob-cat. He is satisfied with his hunt for the biggest game the Rockies afford. To quote his own words: "I got what I was after. It was bully sport, and I hope it keeps up." This is the story brought to Secretary Loeb last night by Elmer Chapman, a courier, who was chosen to bear messages between the President and the temporary seat of government at Glenwood Springs, Colo.

A Murderous Actor.

Because she intended leaving the theatrical company of which both were members, Edward Smedes yesterday shot Dessie Helen Davis at a theatrical hotel, in Philadelphia, where they were both staying, inflicting a probably fatal wound near the heart, and then attempted to kill himself. The bullet flattened against his skull and he was not badly hurt. The couple were members of the chorus in "The School Girl" Company, of which Edna May is the star. The woman is known on the stage as Bessie Dale. She is 28 years of age and her home is in Hebron, Neb. Smedes' home, it is believed, is in Vicksburg, Miss.

The shooting occurred shortly after noon. Other guests at the hotel heard a pistol shot and immediately after Miss Davis ran screaming down the stairs and fell unconscious into the arms of a servant. A policeman, who was passing the hotel, ran into the place, and when Smedes saw him he turned the weapon upon himself. The wounded couple were taken to a hospital, where it was found the young woman's injury is likely to prove fatal. Smedes is guarded in the hospital by two policemen.

The couple arrived at the hotel on Sunday and registered as Mr. and Mrs. Smedes. Yesterday Miss Davis obtained a position with a company now rehearsing at one of the local theaters, she intending to leave "The Schoolgirl" Company. She was at the theater in the forenoon rehearsing with the new company, when Smedes gained admittance to the playhouse and sought an engagement. He failed to obtain it. Seeing Miss Davis on the stage he went to her and threatened to shoot her if she joined the new company. He was ordered from the place and Miss Davis went with him. They returned to the hotel and, it is belived, they renewed their quarrel, which resulted in the shooting.

On the bureau in the room was found a note written by Smedes, which read: "To those who know and meet my mother help to sustain and keep her."

A letter addressed to Mrs. T. M. Smedes, Vicksburg, Mississppi, and one addressed to Miss Davis's mother, at Hebron, were also found in the room. The police have not opened them.

Philadelphia, April 19.—Bessie Davis, the young actress, who was shot by Edward Smede yesterday, is still in a serious condition at the Pennsylvania Hospital today, althought the surgeons say she has a bare chance of recovery. Smede, who tried to kill himself, only succeeded in lacerating his forehead with a bullet. He is under arrest at the hospital. A new complexion has been placed on the attempted double tragedy. This comes in the guise of a telephone message from New York, received at the Pennsylvania Hospital, where the pair are lying, from a New Yorker, who declares that he is Miss Davis's husband. He displayed the deepest concern as to her condition, and when he learned that she has a slight chance of recovery, seemed overjoyed. He will be in Philadelphia to see his wife some time today, but withheld his name, preferring, he said, not to disclose his identity. It was at first reported that Smede and the woman were man and wife, this being inferred from the fact that they had registered at the hotel as such. The police say that they are unmarried, and that they know nothing of the woman's New York husband.

Sang to Wife in Hospital.

A varied assortment of broken medicine bottles, old shoes, ink wells, test tubes, boxes of plaster of paris powder and a dozen other articles littered up the street in front of Roosevelt Hospital in New York yesterday morning. At the west Forty-seventh street police station John Blake languished behind cell bars.

About 3 a. m. Blake showed up at the hospital and asked to see his wife, who is a patient there. A watchman told Blake he was a little early for the hospital calling hours and to come back later. Blake went off angry.

A short while after sounds of "Bedelia" in a robust basso profundo came floating up into the hospital wards from the street below. Then came "Annie Laurie," with variations. Next the warbler chanted "Back, Back, Back to Baltimore."

A window was raised and an unsympathetic surgeon shouted: "Cut it Out!" "Tammany, Tammany, Swamp 'Em, Swamp 'Em; Get the Wampum! Tammany!" came the melodious reply.

A bottle crashed at the singer's feet. Then another and still more. "I Was Only Teasing You," floated out on the morning air.

Patients were arousing and the surgeons had enough. Two of them stole out and closed in on the warbler. A policeman took him off to a cell.

It was Blade, and he had had his revenge.

Flee From Mixed Schools.

A number of farmers from Pennsylvaia and Ohio have come to Virginia and have purchased farms in Henry county. They make the surprising statement that they are here to get rid of mixed schools.

Discussing the matter with State Senator W. A. Garrett, they expressed these views:

"We do not want any more of the negro in the white schools, and we thought that in order to get rid of this feature of the schools of Ohio and Pennsylvania we should leave them and come to Virginia where the negro is given better treatment than in the north."

Virginia News.

The armored cruiser Maryland, Capt. Royall B. Ingersoll commanding, went into commission at Newport News yesterday.

B. Franklin Henry, of Winchester, dropped dead yesterday afternoon of heart disease while talking to a business associate.

Before a large audience in Berkley, Governor Montague last night denounced fusionism in Norfolk county, and urged his hearers to unite and stamp it out.

Postmaster George W. Grabill, of Bloom, Frederick county, dropped dead at his home early yesterday morning, aged 67. He was an ex-Confederate. A widow survives. Mr. Grabill was one of the wealthiest men of the community.

Messrs. Davis & Davis Washington patent attorneys report the grant, this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: Frederick L. Temple, of Prince George, awning; Garland B. Martin, of Norfolk, device for tightening wires.

The postoffice at Disputanta was burned at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The fixtures and mail were saved. A stock of furniture in the store of J. E. Parr, the postmaster; and a general merchandise stock of L. Granner were destroyed.

The steamer Princess Anne left New York yesterday for Norfolk crowded to its full capacity with immigrants from the south of Europe. These immigrants will settle along the rich truck farms of the Chesapeake, and daily shiploads will follow on this and other southern lines.

The members of the bowling club of the Young Men's Athletic Association tendered a large banquet last night in the town hall of Warrenton, to citizens and other members of the association. An elaborate collation was served and numerous impromptu speeches were made.

John Melton, a young white man, who was given four years in the penitentiary last week for trading a horse without the owner's consent, was yesterday married in the Richmond jail and today will go to the penitentiary to serve his term. His bride was Mrs. Sarah F. Graffin, a widow and a dressmaker. She was in love with Melton before his crime, and visited him in jail before and during his trial. Melton is 23 years old; his bride is 10 years his senior.

Rev. Dr. W. J. Young, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, Richmond, has written a letter to Dr. Tompkins, dean of the Medical College of Virginia, declining to preach the baccalaureate sermon at the college commencement. Dr. Young had already accepted and his declination is due to the action taken by the students regarding his utterances from his pulpit suggested by Dr. W. H. Taylors's lecture before a college class on "Science and the Soul."

Judge Harrison, of the Page county Circuit Court, has ordered the four barrooms at Shenandoah city, Page county, to close on May 1. The barrooms were closed upon the complaint of a number of leading citizens of the town, who allege that the proprietors of the saloons are violating the law by selling liquor to minors. The town is now in the midst of a bitter local option fight, and the election takes place May 8. The revoking of the licenses at Shenandoah leaves only one licensed concern in the county.

Assassin Sentenced.

Kaleieff, the assassin of the Grand Duke Sergius, was tried by the Supreme Court of Moscow yesterday and sentenced to death. The only persons present through the trial were members of the entourage of the late Grand Duke Sergius and counsel, of whom two were assigned to Kaleieff. The prisoner's mother was not admitted, but remained in the corridor. When Kaleieff was arraigned he replied: "I am not a criminal and you are not my judges. I am your prisoner. We have a civil war; I am a prisoner of war, not a criminal." Twelve witnesses were examined. Prior to passing sentence the president asked Kaleieff if he would repeat the crime if he were given his liberty. He replied: "Without doubt I would repeat it if ordered by the revolutionary committee, to which I am attached." When sentence of death was passed Kaleieff shouted: "Execute your judgment as openly as I have acted before the eyes of all." The date of execution has not been specified.

Act of Jealous Man.

Three persons are seriously wounded, one of them, it is believed, fatally, as the result of a shooting and an attempt at self-destruction which occurred late yesterday afternoon at the house No. 16 E street southwest, Washington. The injured are Rutledge Robinson, aged 62, an inmate of the Soldiers' Home; Kate Norbeck, single, aged 28, and Frank Jones, white, aged 52 years. Miss Norbeck lived at the house with her mother, and Jones boarded at the same place. Robinson, the old soldier, visited there frequently. Yesterday it is believed while in a fit of jealousy Jones shot and fatally injured Robinson and the Norbeck girl, and then attempted to commit suicide by stabbing himself with a knife in the breast and cutting his throat with a razor. Robinson will probably get well, but the girl was shot through the liver and intestines and probably will die. Jones's wounds were dressed and the physicians at Providence Hospital, where all three victims were removed, express the opinion that he may recover. Jones is under arrest.

Today's Telegraphic News

Martin and Montague.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., April 19.—Governor Montague speaks at Danville Friday night and at Staunton Monday. The Martin people are arranging a big sendoff for their candidate here Saturday night. The Hustings court today declared the Masurier ordinance unconstitutional. This strengthens Martin's hand on the city committee as the decision leaves many of his supporters in their seats. The ordinance will go to the Supreme Court.

The War in the East.

St. Petersburg, April 19.—A dispatch from the front says that the Japanese tried to turn the Russian left flank near Heischimon, Manchuria. The Russians retired a short distance to the north.

Rain has been falling again and the roads have been made almost impassable by the deep mud.

St. Petersburg, April 19.—Workmen at the Baltic ports have taken advantage of the opportunity presented by the opening of navigation to strike again for higher wages. They threaten to prevent the departure of all ships unless their demands are granted.

St. Petersburg, April 19.—The government has ordered all naval reserves who are now working on merchant vessels, in Scandinavian ports, to return home immediately. It is presumed the sailors are wanted to man the fourth Baltic fleet.

St. Petersburg, April 19.—A dispatch dated April 14, from General Linievitch, stated that the Japanese had attacked Heishimu, on the road to Sinminhu and Dashiheidi, occupying Padiadsi, but that their further advance was arrested.

Tokio, April 19.—The Japanese torpedo boat Kijiju was launched at Kure, this morning. The vessel is over 200 tons.

The Moroccan Question.

Paris, April 19.—The Moroccan question was brought up in the Chamber of Deputies by Count Boni Castellane, husband of Anna Gould, who interpellated the Government in regard to the situation there. He declared that, in his opinion, the Government, in choosing from several possible policies, had selected the one which presented the smallest issue. M. Delcasse, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, in response stated that he had confirmed the reports that the negotiations at Fez in regard to the settlement of the Moroccan question were proceeding satisfactorily. He declared that he had held an interview with the German Ambassador, who had promised to dispel the trouble between France and Germany. Premier Rouvier, who followed M. Delcasse, said that France is awaiting Germany's reply in the matter and that France has the deepest wish to respect the peace of the world. M. Rouvier held that the weakening of Russia's military power had been responsible for Germany's move in Morocco.

The Troubles in France.

Paris, April 19.—Anarchists are preparing to inaugurate a campaign of active warfare, by means of attacks on army and police officers who may be found in isolated places, in retaliation for the firing on the mobs at Limoges during the strike of the porcelain workers. A number of anarchists met last night at the labor exchange. They decided to advise their fellows in all the leading cities to refrain from any demonstrations in large bodies, but to kill army officers and policemen when they are caught alone on the streets. The purpose was openly avowed to be in revenge for the killing of rioters at Limoges.

The Nan Patterson Case.

New York, April 19.—Three jurors were in the box this morning when the trial of Nan Patterson, the chorus girl charged with murder, was resumed before Recorder Goff. Nan Patterson pays keen attention to the selection of jurors. Yesterday she turned down a talesman who was acceptable to both counsel. The talesman in question was apparently desirable to both sides, when Nan turned to Mr. Levy and said: "I do no want him. He does not suit me." During the examination of the first talesman called today, Recorder Goff interrupted counsel, and said: "This jury box must be filled today, even if the court has to sit late today. I intend to adjourn the court tonight until Monday for Easter season, and a jury must be selected today. In spite of the court's injunction the examination of talesmen did not appear to proceed expeditiously enough to admit of a selection of a complete jury by tonight. Twenty-one talesmen were examined at the morning session, but no additional jurors were secured.

Tribute to Senator Hoar.

Worcester, Mass., April 19.—Worcester paid her official tribute to the late Senator George F. Hoar, with memorial services in Mechanics' Hall, at 2:30 this afternoon. Representatives of the station, nation and every phase of business and social life were present to pay their tribute. The address was delivered by Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, colleague and very intimate friend of the late Senator. Senator Daniel said the influence of Senator Hoar's life and character died not with him. "His spirit," he said, "will hover over you and will suffuse itself into the thoughts and hearts and doings of the men and women of Massachusetts for years and years to come. Nor here alone will it be potent. It has overspread the nation; it has gone to the uttermost parts of the earth. Everywhere it will remain a force for the uplifting of mankind. He was a worshipful man, full of reverence. His religion was the key of the morning and the bolt of the night. What are the wages of this man's life, so laborious, so beautiful?"

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron of Milton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been throughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Fire broke out last night on the new battleship Republique, which was launched recently and is now being completed in the harbor of Brest. The fire was extinguished after a fight. The damage has not been ascertained.

Joseph Jefferson's Condition.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 19.—A bulletin issued at eight o'clock this morning by doctors Potter and Worley, in attendance upon Joseph Jefferson, who is ill at West Palm Beach, announced that the aged actor is somewhat better. The patient spent a restful night and appears bright and cheerful this morning.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The bakers at Riga, Russia, have struck and the city is almost without bread.

The railway strikers made and attack last night on the soldiers who are guarding the railroad property, at Foggia, Italy. The troops replied by firing on the mob. Three men were killed and eight wounded.

The municipality of Ascoli, Italy, has invited J. P. Morgan, the American banker, to attend a public reception in his honor. The invitation is intended as a tribute to Mr. Morgan for returning the famous cope, stolen from the Ascoli cathedral, and which Mr. Morgan, a devoted art collector, innocently purchased. It is believed Mr. Morgan will accept the invitation.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

A prominent peach grower who was in Cumberland, Md., this morning states that the recent freeze had killed all early peaches and apples. Ice formed on the creeks and on the ponds sufficient to bear a man's weight. It is the coldest wheather for April ever known in that section.

Thirty new subpoenas have been served by deputy marshals and secret service agents upon additional men wanted by the Chicago federal grand jury, as witnesses in its investigation of the beef trust packing industry. Persons who formerly occupied influential positions with the packers and not a few railroad men are among the fresh witnesses.

A masked tramp early this morning demanded money at the house of Benjamin Coville, a railway section hand, near Rodney, Ont., this morning, and when Miss Eliza Rodney, who opened the door, refused his request, he dragged her into the yard and beat her to death. The tramp then demanded money from Mrs. Coville, who is an invalid, and receiving it walked off apparently satisfied.

Mr. Willard's Reply.

In reply to the letter sent to all the candidates for State offices by the Anti-Saloon League, Mr. J. E. Willard says:

I approve the "Mann bill" when construed as controlling and regulating the sale of whisky, but I do not approve it when construed as prohibition. The law in question is so framed as to permit great latitude in its construction and interpretation. This is evidenced by the fact that very few judges in Virginia have construed this law alike.

The "Mann bill" does not permit the applicant an appeal to our Supreme Court otherwise that court would have so construed the law as to make its operation uniform throughout the State.

I reiterate that I favor rigid control of the whisky traffic. I am, however, opposed to prohibition; first, because the democratic party and its policy have always been against sumptuary laws; second, because prohibition does not prohibit; third, because if prohibition does not prohibit and the whisky traffic will exist, then should the State regulate the traffic so as to minimize its evils and derive therefrom its proper revenue; fourth, I do not believe that public sentiment will sustain prohibition laws, and I am opposed to the existence of any law on our statute books which is not enforced. This condition will always obtain unless the law is supported by public sentiment.

Guarantees to Cure Drunkenness.

We never guarantee a remedy unless we know it possesses real merit. We strongly recommend Orrine as a cure for drunkenness, for we are positive that it stops the craving for alcoholic stimulants.

Orrine No. 1 is a secret remedy and can be given in tea, coffee, soup, milk or food, without the slightest knowledge of the patient, as it is perfectly colorless, tasteless and harmless. Orrine No. 2 is in pill form, for those desiring to be cured. Either form $1 per package, mailed sealed. All correspondence treated with the greatest confidence. Write to the Orrine Company, Inc., Washington, D. C., for free book on "Drunkenness," mailed in plain envelope.

We have exclusive sale in this city, and are perfectly satisfied that the company is reliable and will refund the money if they fail to cure the craving for liquor. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Alexandria, Va.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, Va., rendered on the 31st day of January, 1901, in the chancery cause therein pending between William T. J. O. U. A. M. in Council

The Junior Order United American Mechanics met in Manassas yesterday. There has been a large increase in the membership the past year. The following officers were elected:

State councilor, Eugene Colved, Berkley; vice-councilor, J. W. Jones, Vienna; secretary, J. E. Boehm, Roanoke; treasurer, J. H. Trimyer, Alexandria; conductor, B. B. Bott, Berkley; warden, George D. Baker, Manassas; inside sentinel, W. D. Zimmerman, Alexandria; outside sentinel, A. M. Hough, Waterford; chaplain, Rev. W. F. Shephard, Roanoke; trustee, T. T. Osborne, A. F. Dise, E. L. Crocket; national representatives, L. W. Forbes, Norfolk. James R. Mansfield, of Alexandria, was appointed on the judiciary.

The local council, Bull Run, gave the State Council a banquet last night, at which Hon. J. B. T. Thornton and National Councilman W. E. Faison, of Raleigh, N. C., spoke. The next council will be held in Richmond in April, 1906.

C. T. Bland Withdraws.

Charles T. Bland, of Portsmouth, the first candidate to enter the race for the Virginia democratic nomination for lieutenant governor in the coming state primary, yesterday withdrew. In his letter of withdrawal, addressed to the democrats of Virginia, Mr. Bland says:

"Realizing the futility of prolonging the struggle for the lieutenant governorship nomination, and acting upon the advice of friends, I hereby withdraw from the contest. This is an age of conditions and not theories, and it being plainly apparent to me that by reason of his long service to the party the Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson is the choice of a majority for that position, I do not desire to further embarrass my friends by remaining in the field."

There have been four candidates for the position—Mr. Bland, Mr. Ellyson, Mr. Caton, of Alexandria, and Mr. J. Alston Cabell, of Richmond. Mr. Cabell and Mr. Ellyson are from the same city.

Fire Cause by Burglars.

Nine business houses, comprising the chief commercial portion of the town of Clendennin, West Virginia, were destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday morning, with their contents. The loss is about $40,000. The fire is thought to have originated in the attempt of robbers to blow open the safe in Samuel Bearman's general store, and, as the houses were all wooden and standing close together, when once started it burned until there was nothing else in reach. The burglars tried to enter almost every business house in the place that was not destroyed, and were known to have been successful in getting into that of J. A. Osborne, from which they took a number of articles of merchandise and a small sum of money. They also tried to get in o the bank, but failed. During the excitement caused by the fire the marauders made their escape.

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from this terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and warmer tonight and Thursday; light to fresh westerly winds.

Burning of a Hotel.

About the time the Gazette was being put to press yesterday afternoon the large four-story frame hotel at New Alexandria was burning and its total destruction seemed inevitable. The inflammable nature of the material of which it was constructed caused the fire to burn fiercely, and there being no fire apparatus near the scene, about all that could be done was to remove everything possible from the building. The structure burned for several hours and was totally destroyed. The building was erected in 1894 by the projectors of New Alexandria. The hotel had recently been occupied only by J. F. Blackwell and his family as caretakers. The origin of the fire is unknown. The building was opened to the public on July 4, 1894, and dedicated by Hon. William Jennings Bryan. Mr. Bryan made an address and was followed by Hon James Richards n, of Tennessee, and Hon. S. S. Yoder, of Ohio, then members of Congress. The hotel was owned by the Land and River Improvement Company, of which Park Agnew, M. B. Harlow, and J. K. Swartz, of this city, are officers. There was no insurance.

The hotel was built at a time when efforts were being made to found what is known as New Alexandria. A company purchased a large tract of land extending from the southern approach of the electric railway bridge to the Dyke, most of which was laid off in lots. The Deis Manufacturing Company erected a furniture factory on the place. A basket factory was constructed together with a plant for the manufacture of metallic ware. The hotel was subsequently built as well as a number of small residences while the electric railway company placed their power house and car barn in the prospective town. The furniture factory was burned in December 1892, but was rebuilt. It never, however, seemed to prosper. In the early part of September 1901, one of the buildings mentioned above, which was then being used as a spoke factory, was destroyed by fire, and the burning of the hotel yesterday is the third of the larger structures which has met a similar fate. Attempts had been made in past years to attract summer boarders to this hotel, but the enterprise failed.

New Alexandria started out with fair promises of ultimate success. The railway company in constructing their bridge across Hunting creek had provided for a carriageway and sidewalk, and the intercourse between Alexandria and the new town was lively for a time. Later, however, the railway company removed the carriageway and sidewalk in order, it was suggested, to avoid damage suits resulting from accidents on the bridge, since which time New Alexandria has made no material progress.

Present to Firemen.

After the fire at the "Colonial" on north Fairfax street had been extinguished yesterday evening, the owner of the property, Mr. F. L Wagar, a comparative stranger in the city, called on Mr. M. B. Harlow and made inquiries concerning the fire department. He said he had been told that the Alexandria Fire Department was a volunteer organization, with only a few paid members and was informed that this was all true. He then said he had been impressed with the faithful manner in which they had worked at the fire and felt grateful to the men for saving his property with such slight damage and thereupon wrote a check for $50 which he asked Mr. Harlow to present to the department and to express to the men the gratitude he felt toward them. This morning Mr. Harlow handed Chief Pettey the check and the chief divided the money equally between the three active fire companies. Mr. Wagar recently purchased the property formerly occupied by St. Mary's Academy and has converted it into an apartment house fitted with all modern improvements and conveniences.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William McKay, colored, arrested by Officer Young for shooting George Griffin, white, and Robert Harris, colored, was sent on to the grand jury.

Beverly Walker, colored, arrested by Officers Knight and Nicholson charged with assaulting Charles Holmes with a bottle, was dismissed.

William Bell, colored, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with assaulting Charlotte Beckham, was fined $2.50.

A man who was charged with neglecting to place a light on an obstruction in the street was fined $2.50.

Several merchants who were charged with obstructing sidewalks were dismissed upon promising to remove the obstacles.

Scarcity of Fish.

Fishtown was again inactive this morning. But few herring had arrived and they were selling from the vessels at $3.50 a 4 per thousand. No shad had been received, and they were still advancing in prices. The packers again find it difficult to fill all orders promptly. The cold northwest winds have naturally retarded fishing operations. Shad were selling in market this morning at 35 cents for buck, and at 60 cents for roe. Herring were 10 cents a dozen; smoked 30 cents. Rockfish were held at 15 cents a pound, and perch at 12½ a 15 cents. Catfish were 25 cents a bunch. Some snapping turtles were at the fish stalls. They were quoted at 10 cents a pound.

Police Commissioners.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tonight, when two new policemen will be elected. A number of men have applied for the positions. The new men will take the place of Messrs. James Howson and Samuel Vicer, who will retire on the 1st proximo. Mr. F. C. Spinks, it is said, will not be a candidate.

The Passover.

The Feast of the Passover begins this evening, when services will be held in the Synagogue in this city. The festival will last for seven days in the reformed churches and for eight days with the orthodox Jews.

New Steamer Ordered.

Mr. John Callahan, manager of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, has given an order for a new sidewheel steamer to Newport News constructors. The vessel will cost $200,000 and will be 250 feet long over all, thirty-five feet on the water line and fifty feet wide on deck. Fitted up with inclined compound engines, she will have a speed of between eighteen and twenty miles an hour and will have an exceptionally wide saloon and main deck. There will be no staterooms, but in the saloon will be eight large parlors fitted up for private parties, thus making the boat a desirable one for day trips. The steamer is designed to meet the anticipated demand for transportation during the continuance of the Jamestown Exposition, as well as the growing trade between Washington, Alexandria and Norfolk, and for running daylight excursions between those cities. The steamer will also make trips on the river. In rebuilding the old ferry line wharf in Washington, Mr. Callahan will arrange a berth for the new boat at that pier, and she will take on passengers to and from that point. When the plains are completed changes that may be desired to improve the steamer may be made. The steamer is designed to be one of the finest sidewheel boats ever on the Potomac.

It has been suggested by several persons in this city that the new steamer be named "Alexandria," as the other boats of the line are named after terminals—Washington, Norfolk and Newport News.

Wedding.

Miss Emma Rathburn and Mr. John H. Schofield were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin C. Rathburn, sr., on Marietta street, Wednesday evening at six o'clock. The ceremony, which was witnessed by only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties, was performed by Rev. E. R. Richards, pastor of St. John's English Lutheran church. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with carnations, roses and foliage. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of brown silk and carried a bouquet of roses. After a delicious dinner had been served, the newly married couple went to their home on Putnam avenue which had been previously prepared and was ready for occupancy. Those present at the wedding were: Messrs. and Mesdames L. L. Stewart, Thomas Hoosan, Austin C. Rathburn, sr., Austin C. Rathburn, jr., Miss Jennie Grukle, Messrs. C. M. Mock, Lafayette Daley and Joseph Larzelere.—[Zanesville, Ohio, Signal, April 13.

[Mr. Schofield is a son of the late D. W. Schofield, and formerly lived in Alexandria.]

Sent to the Grand Jury.

William McKay, colored, who ran amuck on Fishtown yesterday and shot Robert Harris, colored, in the leg and subsequently lodged a ball in the leg of George Griffin, white, who was one of a posse who were attempting to intercept the assassin, was brought into the Police Court this morning. Harris was present and testified to the scenes on Fishtown, while other witnesses gave the details of the chase, the shooting of Griffin and the capture of McKay. The prisoner was sent on to the grand jury by Justice Caton. McKay was arrested recently charged with stealing a bicycle in Washington. It is also alleged that he discharged a pistol yesterday near Queen and Fairfax streets before he went to Fishtown.

Packing Herring.

A letter from Comorn, King George county, says: "Many thousands of Potomac herrings are now being hauled in carts and wagons from the numerous fishing shores to the homes in all parts of the adjacent counties, where they are washed, drained, 'roused' and subsequently packed for family use. The average country family hereabouts would no more neglect putting up a year's supply of choice Potomac herrings in April than it would neglect to provide for the payment of taxes. Thousands and tens of thousands of the herrings caught by the Potomac fishermen every spring are bought and 'cured' for family use by the people of King George, Stafford and Westmoreland."

Fra Diavolo.

The title role will be taken by Mr. M. Harry Stevens, a general favorite with Alexandria audiences. In this opera he has much solo work, particularly in the third act, where he has a whole scene. His sweet tenor voice has ample scope in the part assigned him, which added to the dramatic situations in which he is placed will add laurels to his other triumps, among them, Alvin Barry in the Little Tycoon and in the Crucifixion. The other tenor part will be taken by Mr. L. F. Randolph, jr., who has appeared as Ralph Rackstraw in Pianafore, and Devilshoof, in the Bohemian Girl.

Auction Sales Tomorrow.

Capt. R. F. Knox, auctioneer, will offer for sale at noon tomorrow in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall the following property.

A lot of ground on the north side of Queen street near Pitt.

Five lots of ground on the east side of Fairfax street, between Jefferson and Franklin streets.

A lot of ground on the east side of Fairfax street, between Queen and Princess streets.

A lot of ground on the south side of Wilkes street near Pitt.

To Visit Hagerstown.

A dispatch from Hagerstown, Md., says: "The Friendship Veteran Firemen's Association of Alexandria has written to the committee that they will attend the meeting of the Maryland State Firemen's Association at Hagerstown, in June. They will bring along the famous old hand-engine presented to the company by George Washington, who was a member. The engine will be placed in the parade."

The Weather.

The temperature was low again last night, and this morning a heavy frost was visible. In some places the mercury stood at 32° this morning. Later the wind changed to the southwest when the temperature rose and conditions became more pleasant.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah F. Sampson, whose death occurred Monday evening, took place from the residence on south Washington street this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Stump, of the M. E. Church.

Reception to Pastor.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the M. P. Church gave Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, their pastor, a reception last night in the lecture room of the church. Lambert D. Sullivan, president of the society, presided in a graceful manner. The following programme was rendered: Doxology, followed by Lord's Prayer; quartette, "Guide me;" piano solo, Miss Margaret Milstead; address of welcome on behalf of church, J. T. Haring; recitation, Miss Grace Chambers; piano solo, Miss Letta Lyles; address on behalf of Sunday School, Miss Mary A. Penn; address on behalf of class meeting, J. T. Cook; address on behalf of Junior Christian Endeavor Society, Miss Faith Henderson; address on behalf of Y. P. S. C. E., Ernest N. Pittman.

The Ideal Musical Club were present, and, under the direction of W. W. Wellington, gave several selections, much to the delight of those present, among them being the "Ideal March," which was composed by Mr. Wellington.

Mr. Ewell was presented with a bouquet of roses. He responded feelingly to the greetings extended, and urged all to renewed endeavors, pledging his best efforts to carry on the work.

Personal.

Mr. James R. Caton is still confined to his home on north Columbus street with an attack of grip.

Mrs. William B. Daingerfield and Mrs. Emmett C. Dunn will entertain the Ladies' Euchre Club at Mrs. Daingerfield's residence on Washington street on the evening of Wednesday, April 26th, at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. W. Frank Lambert, of this city, who has been in Europe for the past few months, recently fell while in Italy and broke her arm. Her sister, Mrs. Armistead, is quite sick in Florence.

Mr. Geo. K. Pickett, of Fairfax, who has been seriously ill for some time, was in the city today and was warmly greeted by his many friends.

Mrs. H. O. Hudgins, of Richmond, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shaw, on upper King street.

Stockholders' Meeting.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation was held at the new banking house of that corporation today for the election of directors and for other business. The report of the president, Mr. C. J. Rixey, was read, showing the corporation to be in a most flourishing condition. All the stockholders expressed their approval of the handsome new banking building into which the corporation has recently moved and is now conducting its business. All the present board of directors were re-elected.

Games at the High School.

For some years it has been the custom at the Episcopal High School to charge 25 cents admission to games. This rule has not been strictly enforced lately, owing chiefly to the absence of any wall or fence around the ball field. A fence has now been erected and hereafter every person on the field will be expected to wear a ticket conspicuously in sight. These tickets can be bought at Gibson's drug store or at either gate, and any person not wearing one will be requested to purchase one or leave the grounds.

A Sad Accident.

The many friends and acquaintances of Captain and Mrs. J. V. Davis will regret to learn that a few days after their arrival at Antietam a dispatch was received from Connecticut announcing that a sister of Mrs. Davis, who lived in that State, had fallen down a staircase and been instantly killed. The sincere sympathy of all in their former home is extended to them in their sorrow.

For Postmaster.

Friends of Magnus L. Robinson, colored, in this city and vicinity are writing letters and using their influence to secure his appointment as postmaster at Alexandria. It is expected that Booker Washington will be asked to use his influence with the President to secure Robinson's appointment.

The Crucifixion.

As heretofore stated, Stainer's "The Crucifixion" will be sung at Christ Episcopal Church tonight by the Chapter of Praise, under the direction of Mrs. Charles G. Lennon, organist of the church. There will be no entrance fee, but a collection will be taken up for church work.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Georgianna Soil vs. Jos. Williams; decree confirming sale of a house and lot on the east side of Columbus street between Wolfe and Wilkes to Jonathan Matthews and appointing Douglass Stuart commissioner to convey property.

Junior Order of Mechanics.

The State Council of the Junior Order of Mechanics convened at Manassas yesterday. Messrs. Lambert Lyles and W. D. Zimmerman are the representatives of Alexandria Council of this city, and Messrs. J. W. Bartlett and A. B. Boudurant of Belle Haven Council.

Silver Tea

As announced yesterday the ladies of the Board of Management of the Alexandria Library will give a silver tea at the library rooms, No. 806 Prince street, tomorrow evening from 4 to 6 o'clock. All who attend are promised a pleasant evening and a nice tea.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The residence of Mr. Burkitt, near Manassas, was destroyed by fire last night.

George Mason Council, Royal Arcanum, held an interesting meeting last night. Two new candidates were initiated.

The schooner W. P. Hood, which was recently loaded with railroad ties at W. A. Smoot & Co's. wharf, sailed today for Boston.

Tomorrow will be Maundy Thursday, or Holy Thursday, and will be appropriately observed in Catholic and Episcopal churches.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Wilford M. Thompson and Ida G. Finnicum, of Fairfax county.

The last of the lenten sermons was preached in St. Mary's Church last night by Rev. Father Sullivan, of the Catholic University of America.

The new iron bridge over the roadway in West End is fast nearing completion, and it is said that it will be opened to the public in about ten days. The approaches are now being constructed.

Ella Dobson and John Sutherland were before Justice Kirby at New Alexandria yesterday, having been arrested by Constable A. J. Payne at the instance of E. D. Hayden, who charged them with assault. The woman was fined $7.50 and the man $4.38.

The police authorities this morning were notified by the Adams Express Company that a package valued at $75 had been dropped from one of their delivery wagons. The package was later recovered by Lieutenant Smith and Officer Gill, the package having been found by a school boy.

The raffle of the steam launch Retta, which was to have taken place at Mr. T. F. Kelly's saloon tonight, has been postponed until May 30.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. F. L. Wagar, whose property was on fire yesterday, and who, in recognition and appreciation of the effective and valuable services rendered by the fire department in extinguishing the flames, handed me a check this morning for $50 to be divided between the fire companies. I desire to extend to him, through the columns of the Gazette, my sincere appreciation of his kindness, and to state that the volunteer firemen of Alexandria are every ready and willing to lend assistance to their fellow citizens in time of fire.

Very respectfully,
GEO. W. PETTEY,
Chief Engineer Fire Department.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF REAL ESTATE NEAR NAUCK'S STATION, ALEXANDRIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

By virtue of a decree entered in the chancery suit betweeu Bertha E. Bradbury, complainant, and Charles P. Corbett and others, defendants, depending in the Circuit Court of Alexandria county, the undersigned commissioners appointed by the court to make sale of the real estate mentioned in said suit will offer for sale at public auction at the Court House in said county on the 24th day of April, 1905, at about 12 o'clock m., certain real estate of which the late Sewell B. Corbett died seized and possessed near Nauck's Station, on the Washington and Ohio Railroad and lying on and near Four Mile Run. First. Tract number 1, beginning at the southwest corner of the tract recently conveyed to Cockrell and others and extending southeasterly to the said railroad track, reserving, however, a right of way for tracts Nos. 2 and 3, containing 23.54 acres of land with all appurtenances. Second. Tract No. 2, beginning at the northeast corner of tract No. 1 and south of the land sold to Cockrell, and running to the right of way of the railroad company, reserving a right of way for tracts Nos. 1 and 3, containing 23.045 acres of land and all appurtenances. Third. Tract No. 3, lying between the railroad and Four Mile Run, containing 26.19 acres, all of the said tracts being particularly described on the survey and plat marked No. 2, filed in the papers of said suit. Fourth, Tract No. 4, containing 13.885 acres and near the Columbia Turnpike, and being the balance of the cemetery lot and particularly described on the survey and plat marked No. 3 filed in said suit.

Terms of Sale: One-third of the purchase money cash, and the residue thereof in two equal payments at six and twelve months, bearing interest, the deferred payments to be evidenced by the notes of the purchasers and to be secured by a retention of the title to or a deed of trust on the land. Conveyancing at the cost of the purchasers.

is a treatment which affords a positive cure for rheumatism and allied diseases.

Applied externally, it relieves the pain at once. Taken internally, it cures permanently by purifying the blood of the lactic acid which causes the disease.

Anthony Smith, of Mayville, Ill., says: "I had such severe rheumatic pains in my arm and shoulder that I could neither work nor sleep and was fast losing all hope of cure, when I heard of and tried Hamlins Wizard Oil, two bottles of which performed a perfect, permanent cure." Price, 50c and $1.

New York Tribune Farmer

The Tribune Farmer has no superior anywhere as a publication for farmers and their families. Everything worth knowing about the theory or practice of farming is treated by men recognized as experts in their various lines. It keeps the farmer in touch with all the latest improvement by text and pictures, and pays special attention to the work being done at agricultural colleges all over the country. Besides all this it has features to interest the women folk. The price is $1 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New-York Tribune, New-York.

Fixing Hours of Labor.

The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in regard to the New York law making 10 hours a day's work and 60 a week's work in bakeries is of the utmost importantce to employers and to employes, securing to both free exercise of the right of contract. The decision holds that the New York law interferes with the free exercise of the right of contract between individuals. The law was oppressive, it was contended, because it deprived both labor and capital of opportunity to utilize their resources to the limit of their ability. Workers differ in physical and mental capacity and endurance, and restriction of the hours of labor by the State is equivalent to partial confiscation of the only commodity the workingman has to sell. Capital also suffers virtual confiscation in part through any excessive restriction of the use of manufacturing plants by shortening the hours of labor more than laborers desired them to be shortened. The decision will not interfere with the eight-hour movement as a voluntary movement of individual industrialists. It prevents States and municipalities from forcing an eight-hour day upon private persons who are willing to contract for nine or ten hours, but it is still within the power of Federal, State and municipal governments to exact only eight hours a day from their own employes.—[Baltimore Sun.

A Record For Bananas.

There was a record-breaking arrival of bananas, in Baltimore, yesterday, and the marketing competition between the United and the Atlantic Fruit Companies is keen, with the result that the price of bananas is low and the movement rapid. The banana boat arrivals yesterday were: Dordogne, to Atlantic Fruit Company, 13,482 bunches; Salvatore di Giorgio, to Atlantic Fruit Company, 19,000 bunches; Barnstable, to United Fruit Company, 27,500 bunches; and George Dumois, to United Fruit Company, 12,930 bunches, a total of 72,912 bunches.

The United Fruit Company had not room at its wharf, near the American Ice Company, on the south side of the harbor, to unload the two vessels consigned to it, and it was found needful to send the Dumois across the harbor to Bowly's Wharf, crowding that place. The Monday morning arrivals are always heavier than at other periods of the week, and the rapid growth of the fruit-importing business at the port is an eloquent appeal for the rapid consummaion of the plans for new docks and piers, as the importers and all engaged in the industry are now greatly inconvenienced by the lack of suitable facilities.

A Child's Vision.

Her tense and rigid body lying in a trance for 17 hours, absolutely unconscious of physical pain and showing no reflex action when her flesh was pricked, little Alberta Russ of Alameda, Cal., had a vision of the gates of heaven, and, as she believes, conversed with the Saviour and her grandparents, recently deceased. This is the strange tale that the child tells of what she saw in this abnormal sleep that held her bound on Saturday last for many hours. Alberta Russ is nine years old, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Russ. She had been sick with cerebro spinal meningitis for some weeks, but since her vision she is well. The mystery of the hereafter, of that bourn from which no traveler returns, has been, she says, revealed to her. When she regained consciousness at the end of 17 hours, she told her mother that she had stood at the gates of heaven and the Saviour had bidden her return to earth, as her sickness was over. Beside the child declares that she talked with her grandparents, who died some months ago.

Won a Name of Fame.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, have been made famous by their certain yet harmless and gentle action upon the bowels and liver. They have no equal for biliousness, constipation, etc. They do not weaken the stomach, grip or make you feel sick. Once used always preferred. They strengthen. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

New Cure For Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind

The Right Name is DeWitt.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cools, soothes and heals cuts, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Zichefoose, Adolph, W. Va., says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
